

THE LICENSE WAS REFUSED

Judge Mann Appears in Opposition to Application of Two Syrians.

MR. BRADBURY'S WILL

Leaves Bequest to Orphan Asylum and Bulk of Estate to Widow and Children.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, Va., June 3.—Judge William H. Mann appeared before the court to-day in opposition to the application of Ameen Brothers, two Syrians, for license to sell liquor at Byamora and Old Streets. The Ameen brothers conducted a bar-room on Halifax Street, and it was shown that they kept a disorderly house.

Messrs. Saunders and Edmunds and Mr. Augustus Wright, representing the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, also appeared against the license. The judge decided that the men were improper persons to conduct the business and denied the license. The Ameen brothers speak English very imperfectly, and seem to be totally ignorant of the law governing the sale of liquor.

MR. BRADBURY'S WILL.
The will of the late John W. Bradbury was proved in the clerk's office to-day. Mr. R. B. Davis qualifying as executor. The real and personal effects are worth about $100,000. After providing for the payments of any debts he bequeaths the Methodist Female Orphan Asylum, in this city, $5,000, which is to be invested and the interest applied to the current expenses of the institution.

He left $500 to Mr. F. O. Straliman, who was for many years in his employ.

The rest of the estate is left to his widow and children in trust.

DR. SOUTHALL HURT.

Dr. Southall, of Amelia county, was painfully hurt while getting off a car on Washington Street last evening on his way to attend the Episcopal Convention at Grace Street. He was injured about the head and body. Dr. Southall is now in Richmond, where he is undergoing treatment.

A case of smallpox was discovered on the Heights, in this city, to-day by the Health Department. The patient is a negro man living in Marks's Row, and he is said to have caught the disease while nursing another negro who recently died. The dead negro was not reported as having died from smallpox, but the Health Department believes that he died from that disease.

MAJOR PAGE'S WILL.

The will of the late Mann Page, of Brandon, was proved in the clerk's office of Prince George county, yesterday, and Mrs. Kate C. Page qualified, giving bond in the sum of $50,000. The entire estate is left to Mrs. Page.

The contract for the repairs to Dinwiddie jail, which included putting in a ceiling of steel bars, has been awarded to Messrs. James Y. Branch and Andrew D. Smith, of this city.

Messrs. Perkins and Finn are engaged making a grandiose tennis court at the Country Club, near this city. Messrs. J. K. Jolly and E. A. Martin, Jr., left Petersburg to-night for Springfield, Ill., to attend the National Convention of the Travelers' Protective Association as delegates from the post in this city. They will visit the St. Louis Exposition before returning to Petersburg.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke is in Atlanta, Ga., attending the annual convention of the Seaboard Air Line Railway surgeons, of which he is president. There are three hundred surgeons in attendance.

The Casino at Farnside Park will be opened Monday night by Salter's Juveniles, in which will appear each night during the week.

Rev. Dr. I. G. Broughton, after a very successful revival service at West End Baptist Church, in this city, left last night for his home in Atlanta, Ga.

The condition of Mrs. E. G. Kent is reported to be much worse to-day.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

Two Days' Services—Dr. Hatcher Preached the Sermon.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RED HILL, Va., June 3.—The dedication of the new church at Red Hill, which holds many claims to distinction, but she can boast of no community richer in attractive features than that which lives around Red Hill. The section is famous for superb farms, stately homesteads, choice and hospitable citizens and a beautiful Piedmont scenery. Last Sunday was quite a star day with the good people of that neighborhood. Indeed, the exercises incident to the dedication of the handsome new church edifice recently erected by the Mooreland Baptist Church commenced Saturday and filled to the brim two days.

The occasion brought into the community quite a notable assemblage, among whom were Rev. Dr. John B. Turpin, Rev. John R. Quarles, of the Gospel Worker; Rev. Mr. Daniel, of Scottsville; Rev. Samuel Saunders, and a goodly number of leaders among the Baptist laity. There were many stirring discussions on doctrinal, educational and missionary topics, which seemed to interest greatly the large crowds which attended.

The chief attraction of the meeting was the dedication of the new church on Sunday morning. The congregation was something out of the usual, embracing the bulk of the people from the surrounding communities and ever so many from a distance.

The sermon of dedication was preached by Dr. William E. Hatcher, of Richmond, and it is to be said that the entire occasion was marked by the utmost reverence, attention and enthusiasm.

After these exercises closed a most beautiful dinner was spread in an adjacent grove and the entire multitude was hospitably fed. All the Christian denominations seemed well represented in the congregation, and the utmost good feeling prevailed.

The afternoon another assemblage packed the church, and Dr. Hatcher spoke on Christian education and pressed with special emphasis the claims of Richmond College, and after the close of the meeting drove to Charlottesville, where he preached at night.

TESTIMONY IS SENSATIONAL

Killorin Fails to Secure Yacht on Which Clapp Cut High Didos.

THE NORFOLK DELEGATION

A Close Fight for Its Control in Convention—Maimed Negroes Commit a Burglary.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, Va., June 3.—After a sensational hearing in the United States Court to-day the libel brought by J. R. Killorin, of Savannah, for the possession of the yacht Adrienne, claimed by H. M. Mason Clapp, was dismissed. The yacht has been in custody of the Federal Court, Clapp, who is a graduate of Harvard, who once practiced law in Philadelphia, and who is a grandson of Mason, who made a fortune out of blacking, was arrested here recently on a charge of larceny, preferred by Killorin, who had been on a cruise with Clapp, but the commission did not act, as Clapp was sent to a hospital.

Afterwards Killorin claimed the yacht. The bill of sale was in Killorin's name, but Clapp explained by stating this was done to evade the payment of an allowance by a New York Court for his children. After Clapp's wife had secured a divorce, and also to prevent the vessel from being seized. Killorin's testimony was sensational, and he told of the alleged crazy antics of Clapp at sea. Clapp, who was addicted to morphine, has recovered.

NEW TOBACCO COMPANY.

The charter of the Old Dominion Tobacco Company, recently granted by the Corporation Commission, was received to-day. The company is capitalized at $150,000. The officers are: L. W. Davis, Norfolk, president; E. A. Davis, Baltimore, vice-president; J. H. Schlegel, Norfolk, treasurer, and C. E. Hall, Norfolk, secretary.

The charter provides for the acquisition of the L. W. Davis and Hall Tobacco Companies, and if necessary, the business of Todd and Schlegel.

WARM CONTEST.

The fight for the control of the Norfolk delegation to the State Convention was as warm as that waged here for the political supremacy in the city. At noon to-day the lists for candidates to be voted upon in Monday's primary closed. There is a full ticket on each side in every ward except the Fifth. In this ward the Day party have the complete number, and the Trehies have nine of the ten allowed.

Dey and Trehy are giving the presidential fight little or no attention, though a strong effort is being made to have the delegation entrusted by the workers here for the two leading candidates.

An independent movement for Braxton is gaining strength, and it is probable the Staunton man will secure the Norfolk contingent.

The bones of the fight in Norfolk is for the chairmanship of the District Committee, and those who are familiar with the fight between Dey and Trehy at the last State Convention along this line can realize the bitterness that is being interjected into the present contest.

MAIMED BY CAR.

Three negroes, one with only one leg, one with both legs off at the knee, and the other afflicted with palsy, were sent to the local hospital to-day on the charge of safebreaking. The men are James Copeland, William Jones and John E. Taylor, and they are accused with having robbed the office of W. M. Tilley and Company.

A happy party of Richmond people, with a few Norfolk friends, drove to the residence of Rev. C. S. Blackwell last night, and the divine united two of them, Messrs. Bernard and Willis Love, Remond. Mr. and Mrs. Moseley returned to Richmond this morning.

HOLLINS INSTITUTE.

Dr. Gardner the Baccalaureate Orator—Entertaining Exercises.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HOLLINS, Va., June 3.—The commencement exercises at Hollins began Sunday, with two sermons by the Rev. Charles S. Gardner, of Richmond, Va. The morning sermon was preached in the Enoch Baptist Church and the night sermon, the baccalaureate sermon, proper to the Hollins chapel. Both sermons were most excellent and greatly delighted the large audiences that listened to them.

WHO WAS THOUGHT DEAD IS YET ALIVE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, Va., June 3.—Ashby Pugh, who had a desperate altercation with four Carver brothers and a man named Carter on Monday, and who was thought to have been murdered and buried in some high-up place, was found alive and well, and is now in the hospital here. He had gone to get work. He heard that his people thought he was dead, so he forthwith returned here; and upon his refusal to appear against the Carvers and Carter, the latter were discharged.

Fauntleroy—Savage.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LITTLE PLYMOUTH, Va., June 3.—Old Church was the scene of a pretty marriage ceremony yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock when Miss Mary Boyd Savage, the attractive and accomplished daughter of Mrs. M. C. Savage, and Mr. Maxwell E. Fauntleroy, were united by Rev. E. B. Smith. The bride was attended by her brother, L. Savage, of Pinner, who gave her away.

The groom's best man was Dr. A. C. Grubbs. Miss Lucille Garrett, was maid of honor, and Miss Beverly K. Hite and Master Ro. L. Savage preceded them. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers.

The party left for West Point, taking the steamer for Baltimore and other Northern cities.

THE V. M. I. REUNION.

A Great Gathering of Alumni Expected at Commencement.

Many of the Richmond alumni of the Virginia Military Institute will return to the alma mater to attend the commencement exercises there from June 18 to 22. The commencement will be signified by a reunion of the veterans of the battle of New Market, but an effort is being made to make it as possible as many of the graduates as possible.

A portrait of General Scott Shipp, who, as lieutenant-colonel, commanded the cadet corps in the New Market fight, will be presented to the institute by the survivors of the corps.
